9:00 AM Cranksgiving Ride

Cranksgiving is an alley cat race that is part bike ride, part holiday giving drive, and part scavenger hunt. Cyclists supply the bike, a bag, and about $20 to spend on winter hats, gloves, mittens, socks and personal care items.

Summit Cycling Center gives cyclists a map and a list of items needed most by the less fortunate in our community. Cyclists select their route for the race.

Cyclists visit stores and buy at least 10 items valued at $20 during the bike ride. They return to the Bike Kitchen. All items collected are donated to the St. Bernard's Food Pantry.

Summit Cycling Center is hosting a free lunch afterwards. Door prizes and other prizes will be awarded during the cyclists' celebration in the Bike Kitchen.

Each rider receives a Cranksgiving spoke card as a memento of the day.
